of its citizens, imperils the hope of democratic ideals. The South, therefore, faces a grave situation—a situation in which there is no hope of adjustment except on grounds that are fair and just and generous and in which all take part. No partisan bitterness, no sectional bias, no racial prejudice, no selfish intolerance may enter into this larger hope. A general friendliness must take the place of racial and industrial antipathies. All citizens must be given the privilege of rising to their full height as human beings. Intelligence must dominate public sentiment and a kinder religion rule the minds of men.

There is no hope for the South if the Negro, one third of the population, is to remain underdeveloped and inefficient. Every injustice to the Negro is an injury to the white man and imperils the best interests of the Nation. If the Negro is to live among us, then we must give him a chance and an equal chance with all others, and by handling things down to him but by helping him but with him, not by tips and charity but by a fair wage, just treatment and proper recognition of his worth.

Improvement Association To Meet in New York

This association has branches in all parts of the country and its delegates will be met from the various branches to attend the convention. Marcus Garvey and Mr. Henrietta Davis are promoters.

ARTICLE XIV. CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

Citizenship Rights Not to be Abridged.

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

WE ARE NOT ASKING TOO MUCH.

(From the Cleveland Advocate)

The colored vote in Ohio constitutes 17 per cent of the total Republican vote in Ohio, and it has been, in national elections, a dependable 17 per cent.

At no Republican National Convention, since the enfranchisement of the race, have we been given a voting representation.

This year we are asking a voting representation. We feel that at least two delegates, one delegate-at-large and one district delegate, would at least give us a fair representation.

The Republicans in Ohio are entitled to 48 votes in the National Convention to be held at Chicago in June next. If the dependable colored vote is allowed two votes out of that 48 we would have a representation in the National Convention 3 per cent of the total Ohio representation in the National Convention.

In asking for at least two voting delegates in return for a 17 per cent dependable voting strength, we feel that our request is reasonable.

We put the proposition squarely up to the Republicans in Ohio who are anxious for party success at the polls in November next.

We put the proposition up to the Republican party, not as a threat, or as an extortion, but as a proposition as compared with our voting strength, but as a plea for simple justice.

Although the race contributes a necessary 17 per cent each election to assure Republican success at the polls in Ohio we have never enjoyed more than one-fourth of one per cent of the patronage given out by the party. We have never enjoyed a reward for our continued fealty, and such patronage as we have enjoyed, and do enjoy now, has been in the shape of inconsequential positions—there being an absence not only of "quality," but quantity as well.

We are not asking for a reward, but for a fair share of the party's share for a minority's contribution, and with the threat that if it is not forthcoming we will start out a wrecking crew to demolish the hope for party success.

We agree, come, earnestly and resolutely asking for something like a near approach to equity, and we trust the party leaders will heed our plea, and accord us justice.

We ask this year that it be made possible for the race to have a voting representation in the Republican National Convention by giving us one delegate-at-large and one district delegate.

Every year, until four years ago, even though we asked and yearned for a voting representation in the National Conventions, we accepted an alternate delegate-at-large—a mere "decoration" with strained community hoping that the next quadrennial would bring to us a fulfillment of our hopes—a voting representation.

We, in the past, have accepted the usual SLIGHT—inequitable recognition, in the shape of an "alternate delegate-at-large," and supporting our disappointment, have rolled up our sleeves, pitched into the campaign, and helped win Republican success at the polls.

We put squarely up to the Republicans in Ohio this year—up to the leaders, the question: "Are we asking too much?"

We—the 150,000 colored voters of Ohio—do not believe we are asking TOO much—we hardly think we have asked for the equitable.

We endorse your stand, brother editor. We are fighting for the same thing in Missouri.

THE BOND ISSUE AND THE NEGRO.

It is reported that everything is now ready for the bond issue which is soon to be submitted to the voters of St. Louis for their approval, except the passage of a labor bill, which is now before the Board of Aldermen, which provides that the labor be done by white men only.

Of course, it is impossible for every body, group and interest to be satisfied with a big question like the bond issue. But we can not hold our peace when we see class legislation and race discrimination put into a project, fostered by the City, that is to be paid for out of the public treasury.

The Negro as a laborer or tradesman is, as a rule, denied admission to the labor and trade union, and any agreement on the part of the city officials to employ only white labor in carrying out the plans, contemplated by the bond issue, would be a clear and prima facie evidence that these officials favor class legislation and racial discrimination in the administration of the city's affairs, and the bond issue will be met with stern opposition on the part of the Negroes of this city.
